Open Exhibition in Kanturk Library 2011

Invitation and Guidelines

Who?   The exhibition is open to adults living in the greater Kanturk area

Where? It will be held in Kanturk Library

What?   Works to be exhibited may include painting, drawing and hand-made print. There is no restriction of theme or subject. The festival is holding a separate photographic exhibition

When? The exhibition will open on March 17th and run until March 26th.

How?

- Submit one, or a maximum of two works to Jo's Boutique, Strand St., before March 12th.
- All works on paper must be suitably framed.
- Paintings on canvas stretchers may be presented without frames, if so wished.
- All works must be properly presented for exhibition; labelled (see below), strung, and ready for hanging.
- Outside dimensions of works along their longest side (incl. frame) should not exceed: 30 inches (76cm.) in the case of a single work; 18 inches (46cm) where two works are to be exhibited.
- A label bearing the following information must be affixed to the work(s):
  - o   Name (and contact details if work is for sale)
  - o   Title of work
  - o   Medium
  - o   (Price if applicable)
- There will be no selection process (unless numbers are unexpectedly high), so participants are requested to bring only works which are in their opinion, their strongest.
- Exhibitors are requested to leave work hanging until the close of the exhibition and, if possible, to collect it on the afternoon of March 26th.

Curator 2011: Ciara Colleran

Disclaimer: Please note that neither Kanturk Arts Festival nor Cork County Council will be responsible for loss or damage to any work during the course of the exhibition.

………………………………………………………………..

In Addition:

- The Arts Festival will hold a reception for artists and friends in the library on Friday March 18th from 7-8 PM. Guest Speaker: Amanda Wright, Invited Artist 2011. All are welcome.
- The Arts Festival will be launched in O'Callaghan's TOYOTA showroom on Wednesday March 16th at 7.30 PM – all are welcome.